25TH Visit to the National Archives in Girne (Kyrenia)

A lot of history in one place, yes it's hard to believe how many documents and artefacts relating to our Country are stored in these buildings in Girne. Members who went on our visit to the Nation Archives were amazed at its contents and left so spell bound after the visit that although they didn't have time to see the parts of the Nation Archives and our visit does some of them in nether or less returned on their own at a later date. On our previous visit was an oversubscribed event which left many members disappointed in not being able to be on the visit especially those on the visit how intriguing the Nation Archives and a trip down history awaits all those who attend this fascinating, interesting and rewarding visit to our Nation Archives.
