

ATA Organised EVENTS 2020

MARCH / MART

24TH Walking tour of Iskele

The gateway to the sea, a guided visit to this beautiful town famous for its Pomegranates. According to legend the place Goddess Aphrodite brought the first fruit to Cyprus. Meaning 'jetty' in English Iskele takes its name from the region of Larnaca where most of its residents came from after the island's division in 1974. To give it its correct name, Iskele has grown from a sleepy little village to one of our country's leading tourist regions with the Bogaz area being particularly attractive to beach lovers, especially Long Beach. This visit will evoke memories, thoughts and dreams of our country's past but mind with a sense of beauty and love, it is a visit not to be missed.
