Today, Kuzey Kıbrıs Türk - İngiliz Derneği The Anglo Turkish Association of Northern Cyprus (ATA) which regularly supports good causes for the benefit of everyone in Northern Cyprus has today presented the Cyprus Turkish Multiple Sclerosis Association (MSA) with a computer for their new offices in Lefkoşa.

The MSA currently helps 400 Turkish Cypriots who have Multiple Sclerosis and on 1st June opens its first ever office, meeting and activity rooms in Lefkoşa. Which according to their Chairman Sibel Hancerli will enable the association to provide people with Multiple Sclerosis the levels of help and assistance they deserve.

ATA Chairman Philip Lloyd whilst presenting Sibel Hancerli with the computer, said that the ATA was pleased to be able to help such a worthwhile local good cause and wished them the very best in their endeavours to help those with Multiple Sclerosis.
