24/10/2022 - Certificate of Appreciation presentation

The Anglo Turkish Association North Cyprus (ATA) has presented members Jane and John Swain, with an ATA Certificate of Appreciation, for the help and assistance they have given to the association during this last year.

Jane and John, have enabled the ATA to help a number of local good causes through their generosity of gifts to the association, which in Jane's words "has enabled the ATA to be able in particular to help the children of families suffering through the financial crisis which has engulfed the TRNC".

Jane and John are seen here being presented with their ATA Certificate of Appreciation by ATA Chairman Philip Lloyd. When being presented with their certificate, John said, 'if we can help, we will, which is also the ideology of the ATA, and one of the reasons why we belong to this great local organisation. Thank you, ATA, for this certificate of appreciation'.

ATA Chairman, Philip Lloyd, said 'the ATA cannot thank Jane and John enough for their help and are pleased to be able to recognise their help with the presentation of this certificate'.
