The Anglo Turkish Association North Cyprus (ATA) presented Maria Djemal Managing Coordinator of Cyprus Today Newspaper with an ATA Certificate of Appreciation for the help and assistance she has given to the association over the last few years.

Maria has helped the association maintain a presence in the TRNC through her ability and willingness to offer advice on the promotion and publication of information about the ATA. The ATA is greatly appreciated of this and cannot thank Maria enough for her help.

Maria is seen here being presented with her ATA Certificate of Appreciation by ATA Chairman Philip Lloyd. Upon being presented with the certificate Maria said 'that whilst she has a soft spot for the ATA because of the vast number of local good causes it helps every year she was only doing her job and is pleased at the close co-operation Cyprus Today has with the ATA'.

At the same time Philip also presented Eltan Halil, the Cyprus Today Editor, with an ATA Certificate of Appreciation in recognition for all the newspaper does for the expat community in the TRNC and the ATA in particular.

Joining Philip at the presentation was ATA member Demetra Mustafoglu.
